Incident Reporting

A great deal of this document is extracted from the NSW Government Family and Community Services Website. However, legislation and knowledge change. So please consult the website

<https://www.facs.nsw.gov.au/families/Protecting-kids/reporting-child-at-risk>

Your Role

Your Role is to report any reliable and reasonable concern that a child might be mistreated to the Department of Family and Community Services. Child maltreatment is commonly divided into five subtypes:

- physical abuse;
- emotional maltreatment;
- neglect;
- sexual abuse; and
- exposure to family violence.

You don't have to be certain, you only need to make sure your concerns are well founded and based on information you know or have from a reliable source.

It is important to remember that while it is your role to be a supportive listener, it is not your role to counsel the child or investigate his or her claims. Child protection workers will undertake investigations and professional counsellors are available to provide counselling.

Reporting

1. If a child or young person discloses abuse that is occurring, or has occurred, you should support the child or young person by believing him or her and reassuring them that telling was the right thing to do.
2. If a child or young person in the care of that JPPS P&C discloses abuse that has been perpetrated by someone associated with the JPPS P&C, it is imperative to make a report to:
 - a. the relevant statutory child protection department (Department of Family and Community Services).
 - i. Please obtain answers to the following question:
 1. "Do the JPPS P&C Officers need to be informed?"; and
 2. "Do we need to take steps to monitor the individuals engagement with children?"

Phone: 13 2111

- b. The John Purchase Public School Principal

Phone: 9875 3100

Most importantly, the needs and welfare of the child or young person must take priority over any perceived threat to the reputation of the JPPS P&C or associated individuals.

3. If a child or young person discloses abuse that is occurring, or has occurred, outside the JPPS P&C, it is imperative to make a report to:
 - a. The John Purchase Public School Principal

Phone: 9875 3100

Confidentiality

Finally, keep information confidential. Only those people who must know should be informed of the disclosure.

What do I need to supply?

Helpful information needed for a Child Protection Helpline report includes:

- full name, date of birth (or approximate age), address and phone number of the child or young person you are concerned about

- full name (including any known aliases), approximate age, address and phone number of the parents or carers
- a description of the child or young person and their current whereabouts
- why you suspect the child or young person is at risk of significant harm (what you have seen, heard or been told)
- whether a language or sign interpreter may be required, whether support is required for a person with a disability or an Aboriginal agency is involved
- your name and contact details.

Sometimes you may not have all of this information. Family and Community Services (FACS) needs at least to be able to identify and locate the child or young person. Information that assists this, such as the child or young person's school or childcare centre, is also helpful.

Tell Helpline if the young person doesn't want the report being made as we must consider the young person's wishes when deciding to assess or investigate the report and how to do this.
